

qualify for benefits as a full-time student as described in § 404.367.

(b) Entitlement preclusion for certain disabled children. If you are a disabled child as referred to in paragraph (a)(5) of this section, and your disability was based on a finding that drug addiction or alcoholism was a contributing factor material to the determination of disability (as described in § 404.1535) and your benefits ended after your receipt of 36 months of benefits, you will not be entitled to benefits based on disability for any month following such 36 months regardless of the number of entitlement periods you have had if, in such following months, drug addiction or alcoholism is a contributing factor material to the later determination of disability (as described in § 404.1535).

§ 404.351 Who may be reentitled to child's benefits.

If your entitlement to child's benefits has ended, you may be reentitled on the same earnings record if you have not married and if you apply for reentitlement. Your reentitlement may begin with—

(a) The first month in which you qualify as a full-time student. (See § 404.367.)

(b) The first month in which you are disabled, if your disability began before you became 22 years old; or

(c) The first month you are under a disability that began before the end of the 84th month following the month in which your benefits had ended because an earlier disability had ended.

§ 404.352 When child's benefits begin and end.

(a) When benefits begin. (1) If the insured is deceased, you are entitled to child's benefits beginning with the first month covered by your application in which you meet all other requirements for entitlement.

(2) If the insured is living, you are entitled to child's benefits beginning with the first month covered by your application:

(i) Throughout which you meet all the other requirements for entitlement if your first month of entitlement is September 1981 or later; or

(ii) In which you meet all the other requirements for entitlement if your first month of entitlement is before September 1981.

(b) Your entitlement to benefits ends with the month before the month in which one of the following events first occurs:

(1) You become 18 years old, unless you are disabled or a full-time student. If you become 18 years old and you are disabled, your entitlement to disability benefits ends with the second month following the month in which your disability ends. If your disability ends on or after December 1, 1980, your entitlement to disability benefits continues, subject to the provisions of paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section, until the month before your termination month (§ 404.325). If you become 18 years old and you qualify as a full-time student who is not disabled, your entitlement ends with the last month you are a full-time student or, if earlier, the month before the month you become age 19. If you become age 19 in a month in which you have not completed the requirements for, or received, a diploma or equivalent certificate from an elementary or secondary school, your entitlement will end with the month in which the quarter or semester in which you are enrolled ends if you are required to enroll for each quarter or semester. If the school you are attending does not have a quarter or semester system which requires reenrollment, your benefits will end with the month you complete the course or, if earlier, the first day of the third month following the month in which you become 19 years old.

(2) You marry. Your benefits will not end, however, if you are age 18 or older, disabled, and you marry a person entitled to child's benefits based on disability or person entitled to old-age, divorced wife's, divorced husband's, widow's, widower's, mother's, father's, parent's, or disability benefits.

(3) The insured's entitlement to old-age or disability benefits ends for a
